

Comes Quickly

Don't Have to Wait For Weeks.
A Barton Illustration.

Waiting is discouraging.
Prompt action pleases everybody.
A burden on the back is a heavy weight.
Hard to bear day after day.
Lifting weight, removing the burden,
Brings appreciating responses.
Barton people tell of it.
Tell of relief that's quick and sure.
Here is a case of it.

Charles Brooks, Water St., Barton, Vt., says: "I take pleasure in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have tested them thoroughly and know that they act just as represented. During the past winter my kidneys annoyed me constantly and I suffered from lameness and pain across my loins. I did not rest well and mornings felt stiff and lame. The use of three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained from Barron Co.'s Drug Store, completely relieved this trouble and I have had no attacks since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Apollo Quartet Concert.

The entertainment by the Apollo Quartet of Boston and Miss Dorothy Berry Carpenter, reader, which was given at the opera house Thursday evening, drew a good crowd. The program from start to finish easily ranks among the best ever heard here. The singing of the male quartet was delightful and heartily enjoyed as was shown by the many encores they were given. Their rendering of some of the old familiar songs made these airs seem more beautiful than ever. The solo work was exceptionally fine. Especially would be mentioned the song "Where the River Shannon Flows" that Mr. Whittaker, the first tenor, sang, and in which the other members of the quartet joined. Miss Carpenter is a charming reader who responded readily to the hearty applause. Her selections both in serious and lighter vein were thoroughly pleasing. Seldom are the people of Orleans given such an evening of complete enjoyment as all pronounced this one.

Memorial Day.

On account of the weather the program for the forenoon of Memorial Day had to be changed. It was impossible for the procession to go to Pleasant View Cemetery in the mud and rain, so thirteen of the twenty-one soldiers present went in teams to decorate the graves there, while some of the children scattered their flowers on the soldiers' graves in the cemetery on Maple street. The Geo. G. Meade Post numbers nineteen now, about half of whom are charter members. This Post has 63 soldiers' graves here and at Brownston to decorate. From 10 to 11 a. m. the Chandler band played in Post Office square, where the people congregated to hear them. There were thirty-two members of the band and they made a fine appearance in their green uniforms. Their concert which was a credit to every member, showed the steady hard work of the past few months. At 2 p. m. the people filled the opera hall to hear the afternoon program. Rev. E. W. Eldridge opened the exercises with prayer. Then followed a song to "The Soldiers" to the tune of "America" sung by about twenty of the little school children. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read by W. K. Annie. Vera Bullard sang sweetly, "The Boys of '61." After this a reading was given by Miss Hazel Twombly and a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kinney, both of which were good. Mr. Annis introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Hon. Frank Plumley of Northfield, who gave an extremely interesting address based particularly on Vermont's part in the Civil War. He told of Vermont's quick response to President Lincoln's call for volunteers and her readiness and generosity in furnishing funds and soldiers for the cause. During the whole war no other state suffered such comparatively heavy losses. The flags of all of Vermont's regiments were brought safely back from the war and are now kept in the Capitol at Montpelier, this proving that there never lacked men ready to rescue, if need be, the standard from a fallen color bearer, though making themselves thereby an easy target for the enemy's shot. Hon. Plumley mentioned the nobility of manhood displayed at the sinking of the Titanic, and in closing he said that Memorial Day was not alone a tribute to the dead but it should stand always for readiness to sacrifice whenever the call comes. After the address "America" was sung and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Eldridge.
